It's time to make your plans to attend the 2009 Annual Fall KOLA Conference. This year the conference will be held in London, Kentucky at the London Community Center located in downtown London . This is the same facility that was used for the spring seminar. In keeping with the goals of KOLA, this conference is designed to provide educational and networking opportunities for occupational tax administrators throughout the state of Kentucky. The attached tentative agenda shows our attempt to expand the topics previously covered to provide more intermediate level instruction with lots of time for question and answers, including a session of round table discussions, possibly broken out into different groups.

Carl Hurley, “America’s Funniest Professor”, will be our Thursday night entertainment, following the meal. Dr. Hurley is from Laurel County and I know you will be delighted. I can guarantee great food and a great atmosphere.

Guest registration for this Special Event, which will include a meal, is $25.00 per person. We may have a special event on Wednesday that may require a nominal fee. I will send out that info when it is available.

A limited block of rooms have been reserved at the Hampton Inn-North, Exit 41. Overflow will go to Hampton Inn South
